F. Other Matters

G. Adjournment
At a presentation to the committee on August 15, 2019 I was asked to review the Winnebago County Code provisions related to the Board Chair and the County Administrator. It was requested that I recommend the changes that should be considered to reflect “best practice” in Illinois counties.

I conducted a review of the online ordinances for this report. From information you have shared, I understand that this version may not reflect amendments that have been made recently to alter the duties of the County Administrator and the Board Chair. I have not seen any changes that have been made so I have restricted my review to the ordinances that are online.

Board Chair

In the Illinois counties that have administrators, the role of the board chair is to preside over the county board meetings. This position may chair the executive committee, make board appointments and participate in preparation of the board agenda. The board chair also has an important role in the selection of the county administrator by working with other members of the board to make the hiring decision. They are also in close contact with the county administrator and participate with the board in the supervision and review of the county administrator. The board chair also has an important role in serving as the primary spokesperson for the board and may exercise the important role in policy discussions with the board.

The Winnebago County ordinance that I reviewed provides an unusual level of authority to this position that is not typical in other counties in Illinois, particularly in many of the downstate counties with urban populations and the position of county administrator. (McLean, Rock Island, Peoria, McHenry, DeKalb, Sangamon counties were reviewed.) In these counties that have administrators, the county administrator is assigned many of the duties that are designated as the responsibilities of the board chair.

County Administrator

The position of county administrator is typically appointed by the board, a committee of the board or the board chair with approval of the full board. The position works closely with the board chair but reports to and is supervised by the board or one if its committees. The position usually oversees board projects, negotiates contracts, prepares the budget, administers departments, hires staff and carries out the directives and policies of the board. I have provided a copy of the ordinance from Peoria County which outlines the duties of the county administrator. This ordinance is similar to the provisions in the ordinances in the other counties noted above as well. It would be a good model to use for the county administrator position should the board contemplate changes to strengthen the position.

Good Governance and Administration
The ordinances I reviewed for Winnebago County present limitations to a good governance model for the county. While there is a position of county administrator with some specified duties, there is overlap between the role of the chair and the duties of the administrator. While the administrator has responsibility for purchasing, the board chair approves the appointment of the Director of Purchasing. Finance and budget appear to be under the supervision of the administrator, but the board chair appoints and dismisses the Chief Financial Officer. There are many other examples of areas where it appears the intention is for the administrator to have responsibilities, but the ordinance then gives the board chair authority to oversee the administrative function. This sets the stage for uncertainty about authority and can lead to conflict and misunderstanding. The model ordinance I have provided more clearly establishes the responsibilities of the county administrator, holds them responsible to the board for performance and gives them clear authority to do their work. If the board is dissatisfied with the performance of the administrator, they can make a change in the position.

County Administrator positions are growing in Illinois because of the growing complexity of local government. Citizens and boards enjoy the professional, non-partisan, ethical approach to governance. Board members make better decisions when they receive unbiased information based on objective research.

Conclusion

It would be in the best interests of the county to consider a change in ordinance to more clearly establish the duties, authority and responsibilities of the position of county administrator. The changes in the role of the board chair should be made at the same time. The ordinance I have provided can serve as a model and a starting point for your consideration. This change will also help the county in recruiting an experienced and qualified individual for the position. Qualified candidates will consider the specific and substantive duties of the position when considering the position. Hiring and supervising the position by the board provides some reassurance that the position is a professional, non-partisan opportunity.
ARTICLE IV. - COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR

Footnotes:

--- (4) ---

Editor's note—A resolution adopted Oct. 6, 1982, creating the office of county administrator, added Ch. 25 to the Code, which, for the purposes of classification and as authorized by § 1-13(c)(3), the editor has redesignated Ch. 2, Art. IV, §§ 2-38—2-46.

Sec. 2-38. - Establishment.

There is hereby created the position which shall be known as "county administrator" to advise, assist, act as agent for and be responsible to the Peoria County Board, hereinafter referred to as the "board," for the proper and efficient administration of such affairs of the county as are assigned to the position by the board.

(Res. of 10-6-82)

Sec. 2-39. - Intent.

It is the intent of the board to grant to the county administrator only those powers and duties which are administrative or ministerial in nature and which are necessary to the proper execution of policy as established by the board. No provision of this article is intended to vest in the county administrator any duty, or grant to the position any authority which is vested by general law or this Code in or on any other county officer. No provision of this article shall be construed to delegate to the county administrator any policy decision-making or any other authority required to be performed by the board; nor shall the county administrator have the power to bind, obligate or commit the county in any manner, except as provided herein or by the express grant of authority by the board. It is the intention of the board in adopting this chapter only to create a position to which may be delegated certain administrative duties to be performed in and under its direction.

(Res. of 10-6-82)

Sec. 2-40. - Appointment.

The county administrator shall be selected and approved by a majority of the members of the board and shall then be appointed by the chairman of the board. Upon advice and consent of the county board, the chairman may appoint a person to serve as acting county administrator in case of a vacancy or extended absence or disability or until a successor has been appointed and qualified or the incumbent returns to office as county administrator.

The county administrator is authorized to appoint a deputy to act on behalf of the administrator when the administrator is absent from the office for a short time due to vacation, minor illness or the like.

(Res. of 10-6-82; Amend. of 10-11-94; Amend. of 1-9-96)

Sec. 2-41. - Vacancies.

The position of county administrator shall be deemed vacant if the incumbent is, by death, illness or other casualty, unable to continue in office, or resigns or is removed from office. A vacancy in the office shall be filed in the same manner as the original appointment. The board may appoint an acting county administrator in case of a vacancy or temporary absence or disability until a successor has been appointed and qualified or the incumbent returns to office.

(Res. of 10-6-82)

Sec. 2-42. - Removal.

The county administrator shall serve at the pleasure of the board and may be removed at any time by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board. The incumbent may request in writing a reconsideration of his removal as county administrator at a regular or special meeting of the board subsequent to his removal. Any such request must be made in writing and directed to the chairman of the Peoria County Board and received at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting of the board.

(Res. of 10-6-82; Amend. of 10-11-94)

Sec. 2-43. - Qualifications.

The county administrator shall be a person having demonstrated administrative and executive ability as shown by at least five (5) years of experience in private or public employment in responsible positions requiring the planning and execution of administrative operations, the budgeting and control of revenue and expenditures, the coordination and leadership of diverse departments and functions, and the service to elected or appointed boards of directions or their equivalent. The county administrator shall be a person having demonstrated training and experience to perform the powers and duties of the position, and preferably possess a masters degree in public administration.

(Res. of 10-6-82; Amend. of 7-12-94)

Sec. 2-44. - Compensation.

The compensation of the county administrator shall be fixed by the board.

(Res. of 10-6-82)

Sec. 2-45. - Authority.

The county administrator shall be responsible for the administration of all departments and functions which are under the jurisdiction of the board. Departments and functions which are exempt from the direct authority of the county administrator should, nevertheless, conform to the budgetary procedures and schedule as set forth from time to time by the county administrator, and should cooperate, insofar as possible, with other directives and procedures of the county administrator as though such directives and procedures were established by the board.

(Res. of 10-6-82)

Dr. Crouch will direct (and maintain responsibility for) all aspects of the Winnebago County evaluation, including: (a) obtaining MOUs/data sharing agreements as needed, (b) assisting the Yale team with the collaboration surveys and key informant interviews as needed, (c) ensuring timely collection, entry, and transfer of the completed LAP protocols, (d) working with staff at Remedies (i.e., the domestic violence service provider) to develop the on-site data collection protocol, monitoring data collection (at baseline, 3 mo., and 6 mo.), and transferring these data (with appropriate releases) to Yale, (e) ensuring timely and accurate collection and transfer of the administrative data at the appropriate time points, and (f) ensuring timely participant recruitment and data collection for the longitudinal victim impact interviews (i.e., approximately 1,100 2-hr interviews from 450 victims over the course of the entire project). Dr. Crouch will oversee the human subjects and HIPPA compliance training of the research staff and maintain IRB approval for this project. In addition, she will be responsible for managing relationships between the project and the various administrative units at Northern Illinois University (e.g., sponsored programs office, accounting, human resources, human subjects review board, legal department, etc.).

Joel S. Milner, Ph.D., Consultant, effort = .5 calendar month. As the Center’s official liaison to NIU’s Institutional Review Board, Dr. Milner will provide consultation on human subjects issues and HIPPA compliance issues. Dr. Milner will also assist in providing consultation and supervision for all research staff, and serve as an on-campus back-up for Dr. Crouch when she is off-campus (i.e., working on the project in Winnebago County).

Joseph Pryzbyla, MBA, Consultant, effort = 1 calendar month. In conjunction with Dr. Crouch, Commander Pryzbyla will work with the Rockford City Police Department and Winnebago County Sheriffs office to ensure timely and accurate completion of the administrative data pulls at baseline, during LAP program implementation, and 6 months post-implementation.
Shelby Savoree, B.A., effort = 6 calendar months. Ms. Savoree will provide administrative assistance (e.g., complete human resources paperwork; process accounting paperwork related to travel reimbursements, participants fees, procuring supplies) throughout the course of the project. In addition, Ms. Savoree will help coordinate/conduct the longitudinal victim impact interviews.

Research Assistant 1, effort = 12 calendar months. The research assistant will work primarily on the longitudinal victim impact component of the evaluation. Specifically, she will be responsible for overseeing mailings (as part of the active recruitment process), conducting the phone screens to identify eligible participants, obtaining consents, scheduling interviews, and conducting victim impact interviews.

Research Assistant 2, effort = 12 calendar months. This research assistant will assist with all facets of the LAP evaluation, including: the administrative data extraction, data management, victim impact interviews (in both English and Spanish) as needed, mailing recruitment materials, conducting phone screens, and scheduling interviews.

B. Fringe Benefits - Fringe benefits should be based on actual known costs or an established formula. Fringe benefits are for the personnel listed in budget category (A) and only for the percentage of time devoted to the project.
